

EXHIBIT 3
(Section II, Question 9(c))

OTHER ATTRIBUTABLE MEDIA INTERESTS

General Electric Company (“GE”) wholly owns NBC Telemundo Holding Co., which is the single controlling shareholder of NBC Telemundo, Inc. (“NTI”). NTI in turn wholly owns NBC Telemundo License Co. (“LicenseCo”), which is the licensee of the broadcast stations listed on Attachment A-1 hereto. LicenseCo also owns all of the issued and outstanding stock of WKAQ Holdings, Inc., which in turn wholly owns WKAQ of Puerto Rico Holdings I, Inc. and WKAQ of Puerto Rico Holdings II, Inc., the general partners of Telemundo of Puerto Rico, which is the licensee of the stations listed on Attachment A-2 hereto. LicenseCo also is the general partner of Station Venture Operations, LP, licensee of the broadcast stations listed on Attachment A-3 hereto. National Broadcasting Company Holding, Inc. (“NBC Holding”), which is wholly owned by GE, and NBC Universal, Inc. (“NBC Universal”), which is 80% owned by NBC Holding, have an attributable interest in NTI under the equity-or-debt-plus (“EDP”) rule because they indirectly own greater than 33% of the voting power of NTI and serve as a major program supplier to the broadcast stations owned or controlled by LicenseCo.<sup>1</sup> A diagram of the foregoing ownership structure is attached hereto as Attachment A-4.

GE indirectly holds a 38.6% voting interest in ValueVision Media, Inc. (“ValueVision”), licensee of Station WWDP(TV), Norwell, MA. GE neither has nor exercises control of ValueVision by virtue of this ownership interest.

GE Capital Commercial Finance, Inc. (“GECF”), an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of GE, has provided a credit facility to AAA Entertainment, LLC (“AAA”) which accounts for more than 33% of the total asset value of AAA. AAA owns and operates radio stations in various markets, including the Providence, RI, market, where it owns two stations: WWKX(FM), Woonsocket, RI; and WAKX(FM), Narragansett Pier, RI. LicenseCo is the licensee of Station WJAR(TV), Providence, RI. The EDP rule is triggered by the combination of GECF’s provision of financing to AAA and LicenseCo’s ownership of WJAR. The FCC’s rules permit the common ownership of up to two television stations and four radio stations in a market as long as at least 10 independent voices remain in the market. The Providence, RI, market meets this standard. The interest therefore complies fully with the radio-television cross-ownership rule.

GECF also has provided a credit facility to Mega Communications, Inc. (“Mega”), which accounts for more than 33% of the total asset value of Mega. Mega owns and operates radio stations in various markets, including the markets identified below in which LicenseCo owns or controls television stations. In each case, there are at least 10 independent media voices in the relevant market, and the EDP interest therefore complies fully with the radio-television cross-ownership rule.

Duncan Ebersol has an attributable interest in the respondent based on his position as an officer of the respondent or one or more of its corporate affiliates. Mr. Ebersol and his spouse, Susan St. James, each owns 23.2% of the outstanding stock of Local Girls and Boys Broadcasting Corporation ("LGBBC"). LGBBC is the licensee of a 3,000 watt FM station, WZBG, Litchfield, CT. Mr. Ebersol and Ms. St. James are both Directors and Vice Presidents of LGBBC. Mr. Ebersol is not "actively" involved in management and operations of LGBBC.

Jay Ireland has an attributable interest in the respondent based on his position as an officer or director of the respondent or one or more of its corporate affiliates. Mr. Ireland is a trustee on the Board of Trustees of St. Lawrence University, licensee of WSLU(FM), Canton, New York. Mr. Ireland is not "actively" involved in management and operations. (Canton, New York, is located more than 200 miles from any station in which LicenseCo has an attributable interest.)
